

HI THERE.

Celebrate with Saints & Sinners.

Channing Tatum's Saints & Sinners is THE place to be on Bourbon Street. From VIP and celebrity gatherings to bachelorette parties to corporate events and everything in between, we can help make your next saintly (or sinful) celebration one to remember.

Saints & Sinners offers an array of options to accommodate any event. Our high-quality AV equipment and DJ booth set the mood for any social or corporate gathering. Our balcony overlooking Bourbon Street allows you and your guests to partake in NOLA's electrifying atmosphere, and our outdoor patio—the only outdoor patio on Bourbon Street—puts you in the middle of all the excitement.

You can rent the entire restaurant for the whole evening or you can rent specific areas. Weddings, anniversaries, corporate events and social gatherings... anything goes at Saints & Sinners.

From themed events to formal dinners to cocktail parties, we'll create a menu that fits your specific needs. Our menu options offer your guests the Creole and Cajun cuisines South Louisiana is known for, but, true to our roots of Southern hospitality, we can also accommodate any special dietary request you or your guests may have.

The Saints & Sinners staff and management strive to offer the best products and services every single day, not just for special occasions. We invite you to enjoy our hospitality and, above all, we thank you for your consideration.
