Crawfish Étouffée 18

Crawfish tail smothered in Cajun sauce. A New Orleans classic that could quite possibly be the best piece of tail you've ever had.

White & Brown's Red Beans & Rice 16

Like the famous madam duo, Minnie White and Jessie Brown, our homemade red beans and rice with your choice of Andouille or alligator sausage will make sure you're absolutely satisfied.

Add grilled or fried alligator tail 4

Miss Lulu's Classic Jambalaya 18

As grand as the opulent parlors of Lulu White's Mahogany Hall, our classic Jambalaya has it all: rice, chicken, sausage and many more secret ingredients to make it a truly high-class dish.

The Politician's Special 20

We're not lyin' when we say this combo of Jambalaya, crawfish pie and a cup of Gumbo has more constituents than famous Storyville politician Tom Anderson.

Shrimp & Grits 16

Shrimp cooked your way served over the smoothest, creamiest grits in the Quarter.

Substitute BBQ Shrimp 3

Shrimp Creole 18

Shrimp, onion, celery and bell pepper sautéed, then cooked down in a creamy tomato base Creole sauce served over white rice.

Cajun Grit Cake 18

Handcrafted from scratch, the chef's special recipe is made with a jumbo lump crabmeat crab cake served over a cheesy homemade grit cake.

Ratatouille 16

Not particularly fond of meat? Try our medley of fresh vegetables stewed in Creole sauce and served over a bed of white rice. It's a vegetable lover's dream... with a Cajun twist.
